E Hō Mai

Pule Ho'oulu

Prayer Chant for Inspiration

Haku 'ia na Edith Kanakā'ole

E hō mai ka 'ike mai Iuna mai ē

O nā mea huna no'eau o nā mele ē

E hō mai, e hō mai, e hō mai ē!

Grant us knowledge from above

Of valuable wisdom and insight that are hidden in the chants

Grant us, grant us, grant us these blessings!

E Hō Mai is a prayer chant done at the onset of gatherings to focus and ground ourselves in unity and aloha.

The primary purpose is to ask for growth and inspiration, and to be guided in the mana of Hawai'i's ancestral protocols and sacred traditions.

Ceremony & Order of Protocol

Kani Ka Pū

The Sounding of the Pū & Pū 'Ohe invites and announces all to gather, and signals the commencement of the ceremony

Oī Aloha

Nā Mele Komo: Aloha E Nā Kūpuna

Traditional chants extending love and aloha to the collective wahi pana or storied and sacred places, elements and sources of nature

Pule Ho'oulu: E Hō Mai

We offer up our voices in this humble petition for inspiration, growth and guidance

Pi Kai

Traditional rites of cleansing, purification and protection

Ho'okupu: Kanu a Ho'ōla I Ka 'Āina

Planting Intentions & Nourishing the Land

Offerings of Kokī'o Ke'oke'o, endemic Hawaiian hibiscus of Kaua'i

Oī Kāhea No Ka Wai Ola A Kāne

Call for the life giving waters of Kāneikawāiōla and Kalihīwai

Pule Ho'ōla

A supplication to heal, restore and regenerate life to the land

Pule Ho'oku'u

Closing Prayer

Ua pau ka 'aha, he 'aha maika'i!

The ceremony is completed, indeed an 'aha of excellence!

'Elua Po'i:

2 cupped claps in unison finalizes the ceremony and together we exclaim,

Lele!

Kani Ka Pū

The Sounding of the Pū & Pū 'Ohe seals and closes the ceremony
